"REQUEST PERMISSION TO LEAVE THE SHIP . . ."

It's a Navy custom. As a sailor prepares to depart his ship, he requests permission from the deck officer to leave, salutes the flag and . . . he's gone.

So it is with Lt. Commander Howard Weiderholt, one of the dearest friends and staunchest supporters St. Catherine's ever had. "Commander," as he was affectionately known by us all, is officially "gone" from the school, since his retirement last June. But he will never be gone from our thoughts, or our hearts.

Howard was an institution within an institution. Class after class of St. Catherine's cadets received great measures of tender loving care skillfully hidden behind a gruff voice, as "Commander" patiently handed out basic instruction in such complicated subjects as shoelace tying, nose blowing and, in many cases, the manly art of zipper adjustment.

But being Assistant Commandant at St. Catherine's was Howard's second career. His first was as a pilot in the U.S. Navy. A career that spanned 25 years of dedicated and sometimes hazardous service to his country; at home and in the far reaches of the world. After his first "retirement" from the Navy in 1966, he was ultimately persuaded to join the staff of St. Catherine's where his two sons had been students not many years before.

So in 1972, "Commander" began the process of learning how to deal with what he liked to call the "little fellas." After years of having worked with somewhat larger troops, Howard found it challenging when called on to answer questions like "What time is my Mom coming to pick me up?" and "What did I do with my jacket?" The challenge was all the more difficult when the question was preceded by vigorous tugging, usually from the rear, at Howard's ever-present white uniform trousers.

But no one ever responded to a challenge better. "Commander" loved his boys. Even through the endless frustrations and aggravations that were part of his every day. And even when he was introducing an occasional new word into their vocabularies. And his boys loved him, although sometimes at a respectful, and safe, distance.

So, the teachers, parents and cadets . . . especially the cadets . . . of St. Catherine's dedicate this yearbook to "Commander." We fervently pray that he, and his wife Helen, will take this time to enjoy fully the leisure they so richly deserve.

If you pause for a moment, you can almost hear the bo's'n whistle as it "pipes him over the side." And it's hard not to feel a little sadness mixed with our joy as we respond this one last time to Howard's "request to leave the ship."

Permission granted, "Commander." And may God bless you.

June 1985

Dear Parents, Cadets, Alumni and Friends:

In this INTERNATIONAL YEAR OF THE YOUTH, it is most fitting and appropriate that we dedicate our 1985 Yearbook to one who has contributed so admirably to the education and formation of our young cadets.

Always prompt and faithfully on duty, firm and demanding yet sensitive and "grandfatherly", Commander Wiederholt inevitably gained the respect, confidence and love of each young man under his care and guidance as Assistant Commandant. Indeed, St. Catherine's was blessed in the presence and services of this fine Christian gentleman with a warm personality, pleasent sense of humor and keen dedication to duty.

Thank you, Commander! You will always be remembered with deep regard and affection at St. Catherine's. We cherish your continued friendship and ask God's blessings on you and your beloved family.

Along with the dedication features, our yearbook recalls many pleasant events of the past school year. Our deepest thanks to Mrs. Ana Maria Ster, the Yearbook Staff, and to all who had a part in bringing about this beautiful 1984-85 Yearbook.

To our Graduates and to all of our Cadets we offer our congratulations and best of wishes; to our Staff, Parents, Alumni and Friends, we extend our sincere gratitude. We Dominican Sisters treasure our association with you and remember you faithfully in our grateful prayers.

Very sincerely yours,

International Youth Year 1985

Participation, Peace, Development

Young people everywhere are aspiring to a world of justice and opportunity. They are seeking remedies to the poverty that besets much of humankind and an end to the arms race. I believe that no institution or government should ignore the significance of what they are trying to say.

Javier Pérez de Cuéllar,
Secretary-General,
the United Nations

The Class of '85 is ready for the challenges before them!

They have grown morally, mentally, and physically while creating lifelong friendships and sparking unforgettable memories. Now suddenly years have passed and the time has come . . . with the knowledge that their lives have been forever colored by St. Catherine's Military School.

It has been a long, hard struggle, not everyone has made it and some were left behind. Though they thought the years would never end, now it has. But they must remember that every ending is merely a new beginning.

IN MEMORICUM

VICTOR IVES COPPARD, COLONEL U.S.ARMY (RET.)
1899 - 1985

We only presume
To imagine that, somehow
Our words
Can capture the weave
of sentiment..
To replicate in some wisp of raw honesty
The notion of a man
Who so influenced our view
Of those distant and difficult
Qualities which so define one;
Of courtesy and compassion,
Of self discipline,
Of quintessential gentleness.

Vic was never far from our thoughts.
Not, however, when we succeeded
at some petty enterprise,
or some vain advantage.
But often,
on flinty winter nights,
on bitter foreign grounds,
When courage was considered privately
and by the ounce.
His values had currency then,
And now,
And when, as a young boy, I saw them
Not so much spoken,
As practiced.

As with so many things in life,
A distance intruded between shadow and act.
But when finally I spoke
To my estranged son, much of what
Colonel Victor Ives Coppard
Stood for
Steeled my voice and animated my will
To be a guide, in some way, for
My son's journey through
The illimitable forest.

Perhaps Vic lives on
In those of us for whom
He raised his gentle hand
And manly example.

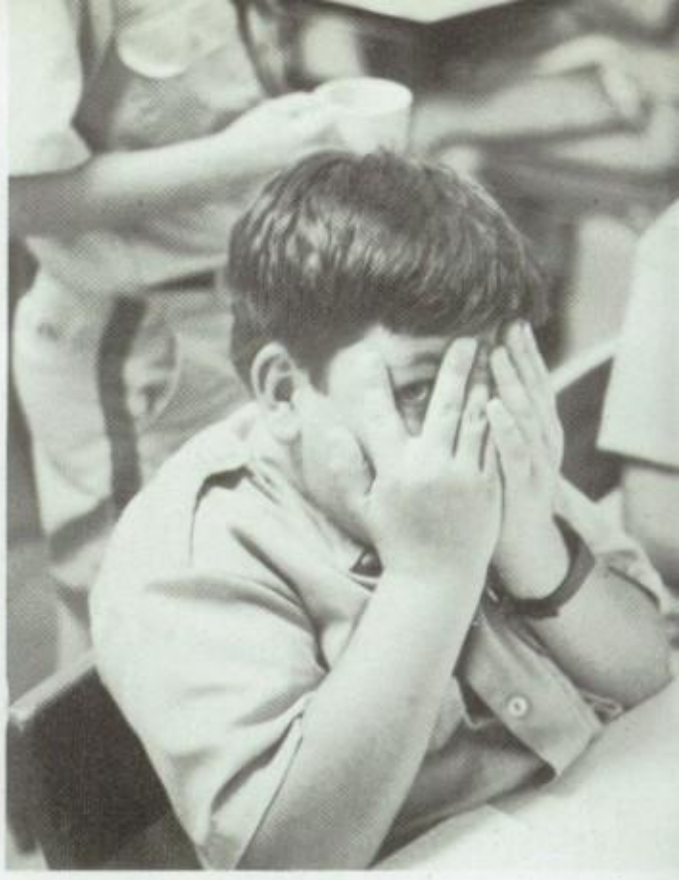
Dad, send more money, please!

Darn! I forgot my cool sunglasses.



Peek-a-Boo!

Aren't I cute?

Stop!! You haven't been dismissed yet.

Standing in the corner, watching the girls go by.

Raise your hand if you are sure.

Bet you 5 demerits you won't make it.

If she calls on me, I'll die.

I'll never eat a fried hamburger again!

If we use a little moose and spike your hair . . .

Where's the Beef?

You want it when??

Lunch was not abundant enough.

Don't forget to write.

St. Catherine's is getting a little behind.

I've never seen her before!

Let me out, please!

Pride In Our International Heritage

■ Represents Students at St. Catherine's

The educational community of St. Catherine's has long been enriched by the diverse cultural heritage of its students. They, in turn, have been enriched by a deeper sense of the human bonds that bridge cultural diversity. Cadets from countries all over the world grow in a spirit of mutual respect and brotherhood at St. Catherine's thereby planting the seeds of community and harmony that will be global in reach.

St. Catherine's is especially grateful for the strong bonds of friendship that have developed with our families from Mexico over the past forty years. The Dominican Sisters also rejoice with their Sisters in Mexico who are celebrating their 75th Jubilee. The Sisters in Mexico are involved in a variety of ministries including education and mission work, especially among the poor. We congratulate the Sisters and pray that God continue to bless their ministry in Mexico!

LOCKERS

Mi querido hijo Dallas:

Mientras preparaba estas fotos muchos recuerdos acudieron a mi mente. Desde tu nacimiento hasta el dîa de tu graduación del Jr. High han pasado muchos veranos tórridos, otoños dorados, inviernos nevados, y primaveras de ensueño, pero cada estación ha sido partîcipe de tu desarrollo fisico, mental y moral junto al cuidado y educaciön que has recibido de tus padres y escuelas.

Kindergarden en Woodland, fúe dificil dejarte ir, era como si fuese ese el momento real de cortar el cordón umbilical, verte ir tan contento a la aventura . . . Escucharte decir por vez primera: "Che, piba" . . . era más grande la expresión oral que tu talla . . . Luego llegó tu ingreso al programa G.A.T.E. en La Veta y los conciertos de violîn (no comments!).

Con tu entrada a St. Catherine's tuviste la educación formal religiosa; tiempo de tomar la Primera Comunión, época crucial en nuestra vida familiar; más adelante la Confirmación y apenas me descuidé, ya estás graduado.

Habiendo completado esta importante porción de tu educación formal ya tienes una idea de lo que implica ser triunfador; estás en el comienzo de una nueva etapa en tu vida, haz lo mejor que puedas en estudios y trabajo, teniendo confianza en tu habilidad, inteligencia, y tesón en triunfar. Escala cuanta montaña sea necesaria para llegar a realizar tus sueños, con espîritu de aventura, buen sentido del humor para atemperar los contratiempos y la certeza que el amor de Dios y tu familia siempre estára contigo.

LIFE'S SEASONS

Life is like the seasons
Each one its changes bring,
A fertile seed takes root and grows
Thus youth is like the Spring.
Maturity comes in Summer
As we work and play and sing.
In the Fall we gather harvest
From the deeds we sowed, and then,
Alas too soon it's Winter
And our eyes have grown quite dim,
Have faith no need to worry
'Tis not the end of everything
For our souls will be returned again
To Heaven, where God is king.

MRS. KARLA SPINELLI

To

Cadet John F. P. Sharpe

Brigade Commander

Yearbooks are for memories. And your nine years at St. Catherine's have given us so many precious ones. Memories that bring smiles -- and occasionally tears. Memories of the joy of your countless successes, and the pain of failures and disappointments.

There are so many important names mingled with the memories of how you grew into the young man we are so proud of today. From Kindergarten to Eighth Grade: Mrs. Steenblock, Sister Margaret Anne, Mrs. Kreitz, Mrs. Delukey, Sister Mary Andrea, Sister Lucille, Mr. Walker, Mrs. Gaglio, Mr. Rumps and Miss Ronan. There's a shorter but no less important list of those who helped make sure you weren't just educated, but an educated gentleman. It includes names like Zaborowski, Wiederholt, Bauman and Moser. The list could go on and on.

We remember you, the "big" First Grader, promoted to the third drill company. And your years as guidon bearer when at times it was difficult to tell who was in control, you or the flag. Memories of bars, cords and decorations. Your uniform jacket size grew just fast enough to keep pace with the growing rows of medals.

Memories of piano recitals with Sister Mary (and the twelve "Silent Nights") bring a misty eye as we think of the love with which she taught you the beauty of music. Your participation in the band with Mr. Lewis (and certain band-room parties) evoke sentimental reactions too. And your year as Drum Major was a fitting prelude to your ultimate appointment: Brigade Commander.

And still the memories come: Your role as the little Dutch boy at Christmas mass in Kindergarten; your participation in the readings at St. Boniface's special Catholic School's Week mass when you were in second grade; your singing of "Evita" with Andy at the talent show and at the Parent's Guild Meeting; your first speech contest win with "Riding, Riding, Riding for Liberty;" your first Physical Fitness Award and how hard you worked to get it.

But possibly most dear are the memories associated with things that brought you closer to your faith. Like memories of your receiving the Sacraments of Reconciliation, First Holy Communion and Confirmation. Memories of you as an altar boy assisting Monsignors Pekarcik and Keenan; your special grade masses; and among the best memories of all, singing and playing guitar for Sr. Jonelle in the Liturgy group.

Looking back, it all went too quickly. You might not necessarily agree. Somehow, time goes faster for grownups than it does for kids. No matter, we thank you for the memories you let us share. And for the pride you let us feel.

Congratulations, John.
